INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

Board of Directors Religious Coalition for Reproductive Choice Washington, DC

Report on the Audit of the Financial Statements Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Religious Coalition for Reproductive Choice, which comprise the statements of financial position as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, and the related statements of activities, functional expenses, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Religious Coalition for Reproductive as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, and the change in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of Religious Coalition for Reproductive Choice and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Religious Coalition for Reproductive Choice's ability to continue as a going concern for one year after the date the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore, is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Religious Coalition for Reproductive Choice's internal control.
  Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Religious Coalition for Reproductive Choice's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

NOTE 1 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Organization

Religious Coalition for Reproductive Choice (RCRC) is a nonprofit organization which educates religious leaders and communities around a range of reproductive health issues. Issues include access to family planning and contraception, comprehensive and inclusive sexuality education, and access to safe and legal abortion services. RCRC is supported primarily through foundation grants, bequests, and donor contributions. These categories represented 100% and 76% of revenue for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, respectively.

Basis of Accounting

RCRC prepares its financial statements on the accrual basis of accounting. Revenue is recognized when earned and expense when the obligation is incurred.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Actual results could differ from estimates.

Investments

Investments in marketable securities with readily determinable fair values are valued at their fair values in the statements of financial position. Realized and unrealized gains and losses are reflected in the statements of activities.

Property and Equipment

Furniture and equipment in the amount of $2,000 or more are recorded at cost and are depreciated on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives of 3 to 10 years.

Leasehold improvements are recorded at cost and amortized over the shorter of the asset's useful life or the term of the lease period.

Leases

RCRC leases office space. RCRC determines if an arrangement is a lease at inception. Operating leases are included in right-of-use (ROU) assets – operating and lease liability – operating on the statements of financial position.

Leases (Continued)

The ROU asset represents the RCRC's right to use an underlying asset for the lease term and the lease liability represents RCRC's obligation to make lease payments arising from the lease. The ROU asset and lease liability are recognized at the lease commencement date based on the present value of lease payments over the lease term. As most of the leases do not provide an implicit rate, RCRC uses the risk-free rate based on information available at commencement date in determining the present value of lease payments. The ROU asset also includes the lease payments made and excludes lease incentives. The lease terms may include options to extend or terminate the lease when it is reasonably certain that RCRC will exercise that option. Lease expense for lease payments is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term. RCRC has elected to recognize payments for short-term leases with a lease term of 12 months or less as expense as incurred and these leases are not included as lease liabilities or right of use assets on the statements of financial position.

RCRC 's lease agreement do not contain any material residual value guarantees or material restrictive covenants.

In evaluating contracts to determine if they qualify as a lease, RCRC considers factors such as if RCRC has obtained substantially all of the rights to the underlying asset through exclusivity, if RCRC can direct the use of the asset by making decisions about how and for what purpose the asset will be used and if the lessor has substantive substitution rights. This evaluation may require significant judgment.

Contributions

Contributions received, including unconditional promises to give, are recorded as without donor restrictions or with donor restrictions depending on the existence and/or nature of any donor restrictions. However, if a restriction is fulfilled in the same time period in which the contribution is received, RCRC reports the support as without donor restrictions. Net assets with donor restrictions are reclassified to net assets without donor restrictions upon satisfaction of the time or purpose restrictions.

Annual direct mail contributions are generally available for without donor restriction use in the year received unless specifically restricted by the donor. Unconditional promises to give are recorded as received. Unconditional promises to give due in the next year are reflected as current promises to give and are recorded at their net realizable value. Unconditional promises to give due in subsequent years are reflected as long-term promises to give and are recorded at the present value of their net realizable value, when deemed material, using risk-free interest rates applicable to the years in which the promises are received to discount the amounts. Amortization of the discounts is included in contribution revenue.

Contributions (Continued)

RCRC recognizes and records contributions of donated noncash assets at their fair values in the period received. The value of in-kind donations recognized was $1,961 and $-0- for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, respectively.

Bequests

Bequests are recognized as contributions at the time of the donor's death when the intention to give becomes an unconditional promise to give. Bequests are typically complex and may be subject to series of settlements or litigations for a long period of time. Due to the complexities of these matters, there are times when management is unable to predict the ultimate outcome or the amount that will be collected. Management recognizes revenue when the amount that will be collected can be reasonably estimated or when the bequest funds are actually received, whichever is earlier.

Income Taxes

RCRC qualifies as a tax-exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Management evaluated RCRC's tax positions and concluded that no uncertain tax positions had been taken that require adjustment to the financial statements to comply with the provisions of the guidance. RCRC's income tax returns are subject to review and examination by federal, state, and local authorities.

Net Assets

Net assets and changes therein are classified into the following categories:

Net Assets Without Donor Restrictions – Undesignated - Net assets available for use in general operations and not subject to donor (or certain grantor) restrictions.

Net Assets With Donor Restrictions - Net assets subject to donor-imposed or grantor-imposed restrictions. Some donor-imposed or grantor-imposed restrictions are temporary in nature, such as those that will be met by the passage of time or other events specified by the donor or grantor.

Functional Allocation of Expenses

The financial statements report certain categories of expenses that are attributed to more than one program or supporting function. Therefore, expenses require allocation on a reasonable basis that is consistently applied. The expenses that are allocated include salaries and related expenses, office supplies, rent, accounting fees, and depreciation, which are allocated on the basis of estimates of time and effort.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Fair Value Measurements

RCRC accounts for a significant portion of its financial instruments at fair value or considers fair value in their measurement. RCRC accounts for certain financial assets and liabilities at fair value under various accounting literature. RCRC also accounts for certain assets at fair value under applicable industry guidance.

Fair Value Hierarchy

RCRC has categorized its financial instruments, based on the priority of the inputs to the valuation technique, into a three-level fair value hierarchy. The fair value hierarchy gives the highest priority to quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3). If the inputs used to measure the financial instruments fall within different levels of the hierarchy, the categorization is based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement of the instrument.

Financial assets and liabilities recorded on the statements of financial position are categorized based on the inputs to the valuation techniques as follows:

Level 1 – Financial assets and liabilities whose values are based on unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in an active market that RCRC has the ability to access.

Level 2 – Financial assets and liabilities whose values are based on quoted prices in markets that are not active or model inputs that are observable either directly or indirectly for substantially the full term of the asset or liability. Level 2 inputs include, among others, quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active market or nonactive market.

Level 3 — Financial assets and liabilities whose values are based on prices or valuation techniques that require inputs that are both unobservable and significant to the overall fair value measurement. These inputs reflect management's own assumptions about the assumptions a market participant would use in pricing the asset or liability.

Measure of Operations

RCRC considers net investment return to be items not included in operations.

Liquidity

Financial assets available for general expenditure, that is, without donor or other restrictions limiting their use, within one year of the statements of financial position date, comprise the following:

	 2023	 2022
Cash - Checking	$ 198,877	$ 179,650
Contributions and Other Receivable	10,097	-
Investments	5,312,668	5,290,493
Less: Net Assets with Donor Restrictions	 (43,866)	 (54,000)
Total	$ 5,477,776	$ 5,416,143

As part of RCRC's liquidity management plan, RCRC invests cash in excess of daily requirements in short-term Treasury bond funds, certificates of deposit money market funds, and ESG mutual funds.

Recently Adopted Accounting Pronouncement

In 2023, the Organization adopted Accounting Standards Update (ASU) 2016-13, Financial Instruments – Credit Losses (Topic 326): Measurement of Credit Losses on Financial Instruments, as amended, which modifies the measurement of expected credit losses. The Organization adopted this new guidance utilizing the modified retrospective transition method. The adoption of this standard did not have a material impact on RCRC's financial statements.

Subsequent Events

In preparing these financial statements, RCRC has evaluated events and transactions for potential recognition or disclosure in the accompanying financial statements through August 5, 2024, the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

Based upon this evaluation, RCRC has determined that there are no subsequent events have occurred which require adjustment to or disclosure in the financial statements.

NOTE 2 CONCENTRATIONS OF RISK

Credit Risk

Financial instruments that subject RCRC to a concentration of credit risk consist of deposits placed in banks and brokerages. Funds in excess of federal insurance limits may be exposed to credit risk.

Market Value Risk

RCRC invests in diversified investments. These investments are exposed to various risks, such as fluctuations in market value and credit risk. It is at least reasonably possible that changes in risks in the near term could materially affect investment balances and the amounts reported in the financial statements.

Concentration on Revenue

During 2023, one contributor accounted for approximately 11% of the total support and revenue. During 2022, one contributor accounted for approximately 20% of the total support and revenue.
